Dear Mr. Kjærdsdam,

The G20 Youth Forum will take place in Saint-Petersburg, Russia, from 17 to 21 April 2013 just a few months before the meeting of the G-20 Heads of States in the same city.

G20 Youth Forum will be the largest international event organized for young leaders in 2013, and over 1500 young leaders, students and academics, representatives of the business world, governments and international organizations will be participating in it.

The G20 Youth Forum 2013 has 4 main events which will run in tandem with each other:

- ✓ G20 Youth Summit – resulting in the Communiqué
- ✓ Conference - with publication of academic articles in the Conference Journal
- ✓ International Young Parliamentarians' Debate - with Joint Statement
- ✓ Alumni's Meeting of 2006 - 2012 Summits participants - with Joint enterprise initiatives

We would like to invite you to nominate a maximum of 10 exceptional individuals (up to 5 students and 5 teachers, professors or academics) from your organisation with a track record of achievement and excellence to participate at our Conference.

The objective of the Conference is the publication of the Conference Journal with academic articles based on our participants' presentations. During the Conference around 600 participants from 200 of the best Universities in the world will discuss global problems which are on the agenda of the G20 in the format of 20 round tables working in parallel. The presentations by academics and students will be followed by discussions.

The Conference Journal will be disseminated throughout the world and shared, in particular, with the G-20 Heads of States and leading international organizations such as IMF, World Bank, OECD, European Commission and Basel Committee of Banking Supervision.

The Conference add value not only to the G20 leaders' efforts in responding to the global economic and financial challenges, but also it serves as a unique opportunity for the participants
